1. REMOVE THE NETWORK CABLE FROM YOUR DOMAIN CONTROLLER

2. CONNECT YOU ETHERNET CABLE TO A SWITCH

3. CHANGE THE IP ADDRESS OF YOUR SERVER TO STATIC

4. CHECK TO MAKE SURE THAT YOUR SCOPE IS AC TIVATED

5. CHECK TO MAKE SURE DHCP IS AUTHORIZED IN ACTIVE DIRECTORY

6. PLUG ANOTHER CABLE INTO THE SWITCH AND INTO YOUR CLIENT MACHINE.

7. JOINTHE CLIENT TO THE DOMAIN

a. Create an Ou called Class Exercise
b. Place these two users in the Class Exercise OU

Both users must change their passwords at the first log-on

Name: Janet Fields

Log on name: JFields

Password: Pass10

Name: Jim Crow

Log on name: JCrow

Password: Pass10

On your Client

Log on to the client machine as Janet or Jim

Change the password to Pass10Pass for Janet and Pass11Pas for Jim

Please remember that if you set a policy while the client is logged on the client should log off and log back on to receive the policy.

Configure these policies for the two clients.

Log on as the clients and test the policies

1. Prevent the two users from running notepad
2. TEST
3. Disable control panel for the users in the Class Exercise OU.
4. TEST
5. Hide the Desktop tab.
6. TEST
7. Using the Finance folder on your desktop.

   Do the following.
   a. Place a link to the folder on Jim's desktop
   b. Give Jim Read permission to the folder
   c. TEST (he should not be able to save data to the folder)
   d. Place an audit policy on the Finance folder. (success+deny)
   e. Check to see the results of the audit policy for Jim.